

ICC Thailand Arbitration Dinner Talk

“Effective use of witness evidence in international arbitration – a practical and critical analysis”

- ✓ When should witness evidence be adduced in international arbitration?
- ✓ What role should witness evidence play in the presentation of evidence in support of a party's case?

Steven is an advocate and arbitrator. He has more than 25 years' experience in international dispute resolution and arbitration in the Asia-Pacific region. He appears as an advocate in international arbitrations and regularly sits as sole, party appointed and presiding arbitrator. He is a panel arbitrator with the SIAC, HKIAC, ICDR, KCAB and AIAC, has sat in ICC and SCMA cases, and also as an Emergency Arbitrator.

Steven has received recognition as a leading individual in international dispute resolution and arbitration in Singapore, Hong Kong and Asia-wide in the Chambers and Legal 500 directories, where he has been described as “a prominent counsel in arbitration”, “very impressive advocate”, “respected for his incisive mind”, “peers point out his sharp intellect”, “respected both as arbitration counsel and increasingly active arbitrator”, “an excellent communicator – he identifies the salient issues to pursue and lets you know what the game plan is. He focuses people's minds on those issues”, “excellent at assessing the merits of a client's position”, and “commended as a lawyer who strives to better his understanding of client needs” and has been noted for his “rising profile as an arbitrator”.

Steven Y.H. Lim
The Senior Partner, Singapore
CMS, Singapore
Solicitor Advocate

Steven will share his practical insights on the effective use of witness evidence in international arbitration drawing on his years of experience as counsel and arbitrator. He will consider the role of witness evidence in effective case management, contrasting between traditional common law and civil law approaches to witness evidence and present his take away from these traditions for efficient resolution of transnational / trans-cultural disputes. He will also share practical experience and thoughts on effective cross examination in international arbitration, the role of expert witnesses (party and tribunal-appointed), and the presentation of expert evidence at the hearing, including the use of witness conferencing or “hot tubbing”.
