

“Effective use of Expedited Arbitration Procedures - Can we save time and cost?”

Lynette Chew is a director of CMS Holborn Asia, the Formal Law Alliance with CMS Singapore and Singapore law practice, Holborn Law LLC. Her main practice areas are in infrastructure, construction and engineering projects where she works on both contentious and non-contentious work. Lynette is a recommended individual for Construction in The Legal 500 and is active in the Law Reform Sub-Committee for Building and Construction Law. She is also a Fellow in the Singapore and Chartered Institutes of Arbitrators.

David Wright is a Senior Associate in the Singapore office of global law firm CMS, specializing in the avoidance and resolution of complex disputes within the infrastructure, construction and energy sectors on projects around the globe.

He has experience advising a wide range of clients including governments, contractors, developers and operators on multi-million dollar disputes arising from the construction and operation of projects such as airports, wind farms, metro systems, and oil refineries. David has experience of arbitration under the ICC, HKIAC, SIAC, LCIA and TAI rules, as well as in litigation and adjudication in various jurisdictions.

Highlights:

- Using expedited procedures to avoid and resolve disputes as effectively as possible;
- ICC expedited arbitration rules;
- Use of Emergency Arbitrator Provisions; and
- Enforceability of Awards;
- How can I use ADR to avoid lengthy disputes?
